

An architectural rendering of a proposed new building for the Children's Centre. The building is a two-story structure with a modern design. The upper floor is clad in horizontal wood slats and features a long, continuous band of large windows. The ground floor is constructed from grey brick and has several windows with vertical wooden slat shutters. A balcony with a glass railing is visible on the upper floor. The building is surrounded by lush green trees and a well-maintained lawn. In the foreground, several children and adults are depicted in a park-like setting, including a woman pushing a stroller, a child sitting on a rock, and a group of children playing. A colorful hot air balloon is visible in the sky.

